

DEMOCRATS AT THE COLLEGE

They Organize a Bryan and Lamb Club.

MONTAGUE TO ADDRESS THEM

He and Others to Make Talks at a Big Meeting—Telegram Concerning Mr. W. L. Wilson's Death.

An enthusiastic meeting of Richmond College students was held last night at 8:30 o'clock in the college chapel, and the following resolution was read by Mr. Mercer B. Hartman, who called the meeting to order:

"We, the undersigned, students of Richmond College, hereby declare our intention to vote for the regular Democratic nominees in the coming Presidential election, and to further aid in the election of Mr. Bryan."

"We hereby organize ourselves into a club to be known as the Bryan, Stevenson and Lamb Club of Richmond College."

THE OFFICERS.

Mr. Hartman was unanimously chosen temporary chairman, and Mr. W. Russell Owen temporary secretary. A motion was made to effect a permanent organization, and the following officers were elected:

Mr. Mercer B. Hartman, president; John Spears Eggleston, vice-president; W. Russell Owen, secretary, and J. Peter McCabe, treasurer.

A Committee on Transfers was appointed by the president and instructions were given to enroll every student of Richmond College in sympathy with the movement as members.

After the order of business was dispensed with, loud calls were made for Mr. J. Spears Eggleston, who made a strong campaign speech. At times the young man was sarcastic, logical and eloquent. Following Mr. Eggleston Mr. J. Peter McCabe, in an interesting speech, aroused the meeting to a high point of enthusiasm.

MEETING DATES.

The club will meet on Tuesdays and Thursdays for furthering the work of Democratic students. At a future date a demonstration will take place in the college chapel, at which will be present Attorney-General Montague and others.

About thirty-five names have been enrolled, and the number is expected to double rapidly.

President Boatwright sent the following telegram of condolence to Dr. Henry Alexander, White, professor of history at Washington and Lee University:

"The president and faculty of Richmond College desire to express their profound sympathy with the family of Washington and Lee University in the death of their distinguished president."

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

A wedding of exceeding beauty and brilliancy was that of Miss Hattie Virginia Sycle and Mr. Edward S. Eisenbrun, that took place at 9 o'clock last evening at the Jefferson.

The marriage took place at the Jefferson Hotel, and was followed by an elegant reception in the roof-garden. The ball-room of the hotel was profusely decorated with pink and yellow asters. The walls were outlined in stately palms, and the yellow autumn flowers were everywhere evident.

Promptly at 9 o'clock, to the strains of Lohengrin played by Thibow's orchestra, the bridal party entered through the east partition of the dining-room. The beautiful bride entered with her father, Mr. Julius Sycle, and wore an elegant French renaissance-lace robe over white duchess satin. Her veil was caught with a diamond pin, and she carried a slender bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Her sister, Miss Mabel Sycle, was maid of honor. Her picturesquely beauty was enhanced by an exquisite white liberty satin gown, elaborately trimmed in Russian lace. She carried a bouquet of yellow crystal asters, tied with white satin ribbons.

Mr. Hartman Eisenbrun, brother of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were Messrs. Augustus Smith Sycle, Walter Scott Sycle, Mr. Reinheimer, Sydney Sycle, Leroy Bell Stern, Moses Ross Lee Sycle, Mr. Carlyle Sycle, Aaron Cohen, of Petersburg; Joseph Schloss, of New York; Simon Griffi and Edward Oppenheim, of Baltimore; Isaac Cohen, of Petersburg. Mr. Henry S. Hartman was the master of ceremonies, and Rev. E. N. Callich performed the ceremony.

Among the handmaids worn at the wedding was that of the bride's mother, Mrs. Anna Sycle. She was gowned in a white satin creation of lavender peau de soie, with point lace trimmings. Her ornaments were diamonds. Mrs. Julia Raab, of Burlington, wore black Chantilly lace over white duchess; Miss Nordenan, of New York, hand-painted real lace robe over white taffeta; Mrs. Jack Coleman, of Petersburg, sister of the groom, Parisian costume of white lace; Mrs. E. Raab, lavender silk, appliqued with lace; Miss Florence Eisenbrun, pink crepe lace trimmings. Mrs. Parson of Louisville, black net over satin, pointed lace; Miss Helen Eisenbrun, white lace applied with taffeta; Miss Levy, of Louisville, white panne crepe, Cluny lace trimmings; Mrs. Anna Sycle, black lace, applied with black taffeta; Miss Whitehill, of Baltimore, black taffeta, duchess lace.

Among the out-of-town guests present to attend the wedding are:

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Coleman, Misses

Situations Secured For Students

Our graduates are with the leading firms of Richmond. Get catalogue. Night school open

The Massey Business College,

Corner Main and Seventh Streets, Mayo Building, Richmond, Va.

Helen, Florence and Rose Eisenbrun, Miss Carolina Relbach, Miss Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. J. Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. Eisenbrun, Miss Florence Eisenbrun, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eisenbrun, Miss Edna Cohen, Mr. A. Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Levy, Mr. Richard Jones, Mr. Isaac Wolf, Mr. W. J. Bryant, Mr. Sydney Eisenbrun, Mr. Irving Saal, Mr. and Mrs. Rosenstock and Miss Helen Kastenbaum, all of Pittsburgh; Rev. and Mrs. A. Gross, of Philadelphia; Miss June Raab, Burlington, Iowa; Miss Emily Frank, Norfolk; Mrs. Joseph Hirsch, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Hoffman, Mrs. H. Nordmann, Mr. Melvin Moritz, Mrs. Esther Folsom, Mr. Bernard Kahn, of New York; Mr. M. Oppenheim, Mr. Greif, and Miss Mollie Whitehill, of Baltimore.

Supper was served at small tables. Among those present at the reception were: Mr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Baubl, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. Max Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heimann, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Marconi, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Baubl, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Cohen, Mr. Julius Sycle, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Levy, Mr. L. M. Rosenbaum, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Greenwald, Mr. and Mrs. H. Dogiel, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Weinheimer, Mr. and Mrs. B. Van Buren, Mr. and Mrs. Simpson Hirsh, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Myers, Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Kaufman, Mr. and Mrs. Israel Stern, Mr. and Mrs. P. Kahnweiler, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kaufman, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Straub, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Straub, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Straub, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Straub, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Edel, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Welt, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gans, Mr. and Mrs. George Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sycle, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Anderson, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Mann Sycle, Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Edel, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Schluss, Mr. and Mrs. Marx Straub, Mr. and Mrs. Wellerstein, Mr. and Mrs. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Straub, Mrs. H. Eisenbrun, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. I. Lichtenstein, Mr. and Mrs. A. Greenfield, Mr. and Mrs. A. Kraus, Mr. Isaac Sycle, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reinhard, Mrs. Berlin Myers, Mr. Wm. Fleigenthaler, Mr. Julius Sycle, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Levy, Mrs. H. Rose, Mrs. Charles Epps, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Eisenbrun, Mr. and Mrs. I. Hutter, Judge and Mrs. Sam Witt, Mr. and Mrs. Moles Asher, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Baum, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gunz, Captain and Mrs. S. Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rosenbaum, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Millhiser, Mr. and Mrs. Myer Kirsh, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Marcusen, Mr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Millhiser, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Straub, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Straub, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Sycle, Mr. and Mrs. H. Pollard, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thalheimer, Margaret, and Blanche Heller, Miss Sophie, Sallie May, Lottie Well, Flora Greenwald, Emily Raab, Mamie and Rita Myers, Augusta Daniels, Miriam Greenwald, Name Peart, Amelia Kahnweiler, Rosa and Etta Wohl, and James Douglas Lecky wedded. The parlors were beautifully decorated in palms and costumes, and the pink-shaded lamps lent a roseate hue to the pretty scene.

The bride was the recipient of a large number of beautiful and useful presents from her host of friends.

Miss Wm. W. Smith, who is a cousin of the bride, tendered his reception to the couple at his residence on Tuesday evening, and the occasion was a very enjoyable one.

An attractive wedding took place last evening at 6:30 o'clock at the residence of Mr. John Parkie Word, when his daughter, Miss Elsie Word, and Mr. James Douglas Lecky wedded. The parlors were beautifully decorated in palms and costumes, and the pink-shaded lamps lent a roseate hue to the pretty scene.

The bride was gowned in a handsome dark-blue traveling suit, with hat and gloves to match, entered through the library with the groom and proceeded through a ribbon aisle to an altar of palms erected between the windows. Here Rev. Dr. Calvin Stewart performed the ceremony.

The attendants were Miss Annette Word, sister of the bride, and Miss Anna Lecky, sister of the groom. They wore gowns of dainty white organdy and carried pink carnations. The groom's attendants were Messrs. Tazewell Fitzgerald and Ernest Word.

The young couple left on the 7:45 train for an extended northern tour. After November 1st they will be at home at No. 124 Floyd Avenue.

Miss Word is a very pretty young lady and popular with a large circle of friends. Mr. Lecky is the efficient discount correspondent of the American National Bank.

The popularity of the young couple is clearly attested by the number of elegant presents received.

A meeting of the Board of Managers of the Church Hill Branch of the Woman's Christian Association was held Tuesday morning at the home, No. 2661 East Franklin Street, Mrs. Shelling, president, in the chair. Much routine business was transacted. The ladies are much encouraged at the prosperity of the enterprise. The house has many boarders as it can accommodate at present. They wish to thank the mother home through Mrs. James H. Capers, for their generous gift of three stoves and fuel for the winter; also to acknowledge the daily receipt of the Richmond Times sent them by Mr. Joseph Bryan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Carr, of Washington, are at the Jefferson. Mr. Carr is a son of the late Governor of North Carolina.

Mr. Percy Corrada left last evening for Washington, where he will be married today to Miss Lena Phillips, at the residence of her grandmother. On their return to the city they will reside at No. 311 North Twelfth Street.

The marriage of Miss May Josephine Tritton and Mr. Lucien White Ryland will take place at the home of the bride's mother Saturday afternoon, October 20th, at 6 o'clock.

Mr. Marx Gunst has gone to Baltimore, to attend the marriage of his niece, Miss Katherine Spear, to Mr. Louis White, which will be solemnized at the home of the bride's parents this evening. Miss Spear has frequently visited in Richmond, and her sweet and gracious manner has endeared her to a host of friends here.

The family of Mr. E. H. Mayo has removed to Williamsburg.

Mrs. James H. Dooley, after a visit of six weeks to relatives in Staunton, has returned to her home, "Maymont."

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Saaal, of Petersburg, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Hannah Doris Saaal, to Mr. Hartwig Dorrit Newman. The ceremony will be performed on Wednesday, October 21st, at noon at the Union Street Synagogue, Petersburg, and will be followed by a breakfast at the home of the bride.

The wedding will be a brilliant one. The bride is an exceedingly beautiful blonde, and the groom is very prominent in business and social circles in New Orleans.

The bride's attendants will be Miss Carrie Frank, of Baltimore; maid of honor, and Misses Rita Myers, of Richmond; Miriam Lovenstein, of Philadelphia; Irma Lusk, of the time; Sadie Holzman, of Shreveport, La.; Miss Newman and Miss Miriam Newman, of New Orleans, will act as bride's maids. They will wear white mouseline over taffeta, with white mouseline picture hats, and will carry bouquets of American Beauties.

Mr. J. Newman, brother of the groom, will act as best man.

Miss Mary Tucker Carrington is visiting friends at Hampden-Sidney.

Mr. Edward V. Valentine has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Engle, of Baltimore, for the past week. He is now in New York for a short visit.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Payne, only daughter of the late Major John Scott Payne, U. S. A., to Dr. Charles Staples Mangum, of the University of North Carolina, which will occur at St. Andrew's Church, Washington, D. C., on Wednesday evening, October 24th at 8 o'clock.

Mr. A. P. Dickenson is on a visit to his uncle, Mr. Thomas H. Dickenson, at Hampton-Sidney.

Mrs. Louisa Whittemore is visiting at the home of Mr. G. S. Grinnell in Baltimore.

Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Grove, of Luray, are visiting friends in the city.

Miss Minnie Solmer and Sallie Preston are the guests of Mrs. E. Moore on North Twenty-seventh Street.

Miss William E. Evans, wife of the rector of Memorial church, has arrived in the city.

Miss Sallie Randolph has returned to her home, in Henrico county.

Mrs. W. E. Warren and her son William Herbert are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Higgins, of East Clay street.

ALBEMARLE CLUB.

The General Meeting Last Night

Largely Attended.

The general meeting of the Albemarle Club, held last night at the club-house Third and George Streets, was attended by a large number of its members.

The business session of the evening was presided over by Mr. Beverly H. Randolph, vice-president. The chief purpose of the meeting was to consider the question of securing new quarters for the club, as the property which it now occupies has been sold, and the club will have to move by the 1st of next September. A committee will be appointed to select new quarters and report at the earliest possible date.

After the business meeting an elegant banquet was spread and the evening was spent sociably. The affairs of the club are in splendid shape, and many new members have been taken in within the last month.

SHOE THIEF CAUGHT.

Captain Ragland, of Petersburg, Takes Him In.

A negro named Frank Moore was arrested in Petersburg yesterday by Captain Ragland, chief of police of that city. He had in his possession seven shoes, and is thought to be one of the men who broke into the store of Mr. W. E. Drew Tuesday night.

Sergeant Alex Tomlinson will go to Petersburg this morning and bring Moore to Richmond. There is thought to be another negro implicated in the robbery, and the police are after him.

HEADACHE.

HEADACHE should always be kept on hand to cure that headache you suffer with.

Price, 25c.

T. A. MILLER, 519 E. Broad,

Branch Under Jefferson Hotel.

ADDRESS OR CALL ON

SOUTHERN STOVE WORKS,

815 to 827 N. 17th St., Richmond, Va.

LEAVES RICHMOND.

ARRIVES BROAD-STREET STATION.

ARRIVES BROAD-STREET STATION.